BackyardBrains. This are simply restock items for the EMG Spikerbox Bundle and the Insect Spikerbox bundle that we already have. Quantity: 1, 3
3) 300X-600X-1200X Educational Beginner Biological Microscope Kit with Metal Arm"
In addition to demonstrating basic physiology of the nervous system with BackyardBrains, this educational microscope will enable the children to see the cellular organization of the brain. Graduate students from our program will prepare specimen slides of mouse brain. This demonstration will fit nicely with our previously described "neuron building" activity to show the students how a single neuron fits in to the overall brain structure. Quantity: 1
